

6 Workshops on Nonviolent Grassroots Organizing

6 Saturday Mornings February 9 Through March 16, 2019, in Olympia

We'll start at 10:00 a.m. sharp and end at 12:00 noon.

Sign up now and I'll provide the convenient location a mile east of downtown Olympia.

This workshop series is intended for people who:

- Want to learn about nonviolence as not only ethical but also very practical and effective
- Want to learn how to organize effectively at the grassroots level around any kind of issue: local, national, global

These workshops are useful for novices and experienced organizers alike:

- People new to nonviolence or grassroots organizing will gain knowledge, skills, inspiration, practical tools and resources.
- Experienced nonviolent organizers will deepen their insights, skills, inspiration – and discover new practical tools and resources.

These workshops involve thinking and talking, not physical activity. They're good for all ages and abilities.

The knowledge and skills are highly relevant for any issue, because they are transferable, so you will find these workshops practical regardless of which issue(s) you want to work on.

Six engaging, participatory sessions offer powerful insights, practical methods, and many useful handouts:

- #1 "The Power and Practicality of Nonviolence – What is Nonviolence?"
- #2 "How to Strategize and Organize Effective Grassroots Movements"
- #3 "Organizing 101: Basic Nuts & Bolts of Grassroots Organizing"
- #4 "Using three different models to devise strategies to make progress on an issue you care about"
- #5 "Empowering the Progressive Movement"
- #6 "How to Get Your Message Out to the General Public"

We'll start promptly at 10:00 a.m. Each 2-hour session includes ample time for questions/answers/discussions.

Please sign up now and I'll provide the address of the home where we'll be meeting.

Please invite your friends and other people who work on your favorite issues and/or any combination of issues. This series is practical for any issue or combination of issues.

I am donating my time and mileage in order to strengthen the movements for nonviolent grassroots organizing. Voluntary sliding scale donations will cover cost of the many, many handouts. If we average $15 per person I'll break even on the printing costs. (I'm donating my time and mileage.)

ALSO: Are you interested in scheduling this 6-session series for later this year – or for a single issue or organization (e.g., homelessness, or climate, or human rights, or reforming democracy). We could schedule these workshops out-of-town too.
